2) The Enemy Trading Regulation No 2 of 1917 does not make any provision for absolute confiscation of the property of a hostile foreigner.

3) It makes provision, however, for the appointment of a Custodian in whom, under Section 7 Clause (1), ~~all the~~ ^{such} property may be vested under the orders of Government.

4) In this particular case the hostile foreigners in question appear to be residents of South Canara, and no Custodian seems to have been appointed in Mysore, nor has any vesting order been passed in regard to the buildings in question.

5) Some Custodian must have been appointed by the Government of Madras & the properties of the German Missionaries in question vested in him. I would therefore propose that the matter of the acquisition of these buildings might be discussed with such Custodian, as he represents the estate of the proprietors.

Sir,

In continuation of my letter No. L.C. 495 of 17-18 dated 15th July 1919 in the matter of the cost of acquisition of one of the Bungalows belonging to the German Missionaries at Kudremukh, I have the honor to state that the matter was placed before the District Board at its meeting convened on the 4th September 19. The Board is unable to find funds for purchasing the Bungalow and it further thinks that it would not be justifiable to spend any of its funds for this purpose when regard is had to several other urgent demands that are pressing on it. Copy of the Board's resolution is herewith submitted.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,
